

Pets As Therapy New Volunteer Fact-sheets

Although the majority of this information is contained within your handbook, these fact-sheets break it down into specific topics. Please download from the website or request copies from Alison Reynolds on areynolds@petsastherapy.org or 01524 380437 as required

Fact-sheet 1

Becoming a Volunteer with Pets As Therapy
– The Application & Registration Process

Fact-sheet 2

Becoming a Volunteer with Pets As Therapy
– What you can expect as a volunteer and what is expected of you

Fact-sheet 3 [1]

Preparing for a Pets As Therapy visit –
Where should I visit?

Fact-sheet 3 [2]

Preparing for a Pets As Therapy visit – The
First Visit

Fact-sheet 4 [1]

Conducting a Pets As Therapy visit – General
Guidelines

Fact-sheet 4 [2]

Conducting a Pets As Therapy visit – General
Guidelines; Confidentiality & Ethical Issues

Fact-sheet 4 [3]

Conducting a Pets As Therapy visit –
Approaching & Communicating with Patients
and Clients – General Guidelines

Fact-sheet 4 [4]

Conducting a Pets As Therapy visit –
Approaching & Communicating with Patients and Clients – Special Cases – a person who is confused

Fact-sheet 4 [5]

Conducting a Pets As Therapy visit –
Approaching & Communicating with Patients
and Clients – Special Cases – a visually
impaired person

Fact-sheet 6

Conducting a Pets As Therapy visit –
Approaching & Communicating with Patients
and Clients – Special Cases – a hearing
impaired person

Fact-sheet 7

Conducting a Pets As Therapy visit –
Approaching & Communicating with Patients
and Clients – Special Cases - a wheelchair user

Fact-sheet 8

Conducting a Pets As Therapy visit -
Approaching & Communicating with Patients
and Clients – Working with children

Fact-sheet 9

Conducting a Pets As Therapy visit - Dealing with loss

Fact-sheet 10

Conducting a Pets As Therapy visit – The welfare of your PAT dog or cat

Fact-sheet 11

Undertaking your research project with Pets
As Therapy

Fact-sheet 12

Supporting a research student with Pets As Therapy

Fact-sheet 13

The Pets As Therapy temperament
assessment test – what to expect from the temperament test for your dog

Fact-sheet 14

The Pets As Therapy temperament
assessment test – what to expect from the temperament test for your cat

Fact-sheet 15 [1]

Care and welfare of PAT dogs and PAT cats
on visits

Fact-sheet 15 [2]

Care and welfare of PAT dogs and PAT cats
on visits

Fact-sheet 16

MRSA

Fact-sheet 17

Care & welfare of PAT dogs and PAT cats on Pets As Therapy visits - The Five Freedoms

Fact-sheet 18

Where does the money go?