

Registered Charity No: 1112194
Charity registered in Scotland: No. SC038910

Pets As Therapy New Volunteer Fact-sheets

Please download these from the website or request copies from Alison Reynolds on areynolds@petsastherapy.org or 01524 380437 as required

Fact-sheet 1

Becoming a Volunteer with Pets As Therapy
– The Application & Registration Process

Fact-sheet 2

Becoming a Volunteer with Pets As Therapy
– What you can expect as a volunteer and what is expected of you

Fact-sheet 3A

Preparing for a Pets As Therapy visit –
Where should I visit?

Fact-sheet 3B

Preparing for a Pets As Therapy visit – The
First Visit

Fact-sheet 4A

Conducting a Pets As Therapy visit – General
Guidelines

Fact-sheet 4B

Conducting a Pets As Therapy visit –
Confidentiality & Ethical Issues

Fact-sheet 4C

Approaching & Communicating with Patients
and Clients

Fact-sheet 4D

Approaching & Communicating with Patients
and Clients – Special Cases – a person who is confused

Fact-sheet 4E

Approaching & Communicating with Patients
and Clients – Special Cases – a visually
impaired person

Fact-sheet 4F

Approaching & Communicating with Patients
and Clients – Special Cases – a hearing
impaired person

Fact-sheet 4G

Approaching & Communicating with Patients
and Clients – Special Cases - a wheelchair user

Fact-sheet 5

Working with children

Fact-sheet 6

Dealing with loss

Fact-sheet 7

The welfare of your PAT dog or cat – General
guidelines

Fact-sheet 8

The care and welfare of PAT dogs and PAT
cats – pre-visit considerations

Fact-sheet 9

The care and welfare of PAT dogs and PAT
cats during visits

Fact-sheet 10

The care and welfare of PAT dogs and PAT
cats - The Five Freedoms

Fact-sheet 11

The care and welfare of PAT dogs and PAT
cats - MRSA

Fact-sheet 12

Undertaking your research project with Pets
As Therapy

Fact-sheet 13

Supporting a research student with Pets As Therapy

Fact-sheet 14

The Pets As Therapy temperament
assessment test – what to expect from the temperament test for your dog

Fact-sheet 15

The Pets As Therapy temperament
assessment test – what to expect from the temperament test for your cat

Fact-sheet 16

Where does the money go?

Fact-sheet 17

Fund-raising for Pets As Therapy

Fact-sheet 18

Guidelines when working with stroke patients

Fact-sheet 19

Leaving a legacy to Pets As Therapy